When it came to get an attorney my civil rights were violated. 6th Amendment gives me right to counsel, states and countries are responsible for appointing attorneys for indigent defendants (and they vary considerably). I think because my case is on a huge scale, so four of my procedural laws were and are violated. And it's most likely at the same time, attempting to affect my emotional psyche, attorneys volunteer which in turn, they would hope cause me to react violently, disorderly (argument), or physically attack someone, in order to point fingers saying I started the riots in Wisconsin.

If it is going to happen it will be of retaliation of me seeking legal justice; which is a type of discrimination, retaliation to specify the particular discrimination.

Castle Doctrine Law

In general, a person who uses force in self-defense or in the defense of another person may not be convicted of a crime stemming from that use of force if the person uses that force to prevent or stop what he or she reasonably believes is an unlawful interference with himself or herself or another person, such as the crime of battery. Current law specifies that a person may use force that is intended or likely to cause the death of or great bodily harm to another individual only if the person reasonably believes that using such force is necessary to prevent the imminent death of or great bodily harm to himself or herself or another person.

- Failure as a result of poor administration

- Within 40 years, the pens were overcrowded, understaffed and corrupt.

- Punishments were cruel

- Hanging by thumbs, whippings, beatings, water tortures, solitary confinement, cramped, dark dungeons, starvation diets of bread & water

- Penal reformers were trapped by their ideology of rehabilitation - pens were best form of rehab due to the strict internal regimen.

- Separate System ^{- version of maximum security}
- Pittsburgh (1826) and Philly (1829)
- Purpose was to hold hardened and atrocious offenders
- 1st was Walnut Street Jail
- Prisoners kept in solitary/separate confinement with no interaction with anyone.

5 PRINCIPLES of ~~Separate~~ Confinement

- Prisoners could change through hard and selective forms of suffering
- Solitary confinement would prevent further corruption inside prison
- Prisoners could reflect on their crimes and would eventually repent.
- Solitary confinement is punishment because humans are by nature social animals
- Solitary confinement is economical because prisoners would repent quickly.

Strategy I think is being used by police, school, and other law enforcing agencies.

Prisons were about reforming the law - alternative to cruel punishments.

Late 19th Century

- By the end of the 1st quarter of the 20th Century, every state in the union had built a prison or had begun construction of one.

- discrimination & harm

* Root of crime was not the individual

- Root of crime was corruption within community, inadequacy of family and other social & religious institutions.

- Prisons needed to insulate the offender from criminal temptations in society.

co-conspirator received personal benefit or profit is of no importance.

A conspiracy exists as long as measures are taken to conceal evidence of the crime.

A person who did not participate in the original agreement can become a co-conspirator after the actual criminal act if the person joins in the concealment of the conspiracy. Whether a co-conspirator received personal benefit or profit is of no importance. - ^{it is a} felony, even when the crime is planned out and carried out as a misdemeanor.

- White collar criminal prosecutions.

A person or business generally is guilty of conspiracy to commit a crime if that person or business does one of the following.

- with the purpose of facilitating or promoting its commission, agrees with another person or business to engage in conduct that constitutes a crime or an attempt or solicitation of a crime; or agrees to aid another person or business in planning, committing, or attempting to solicit a crime.

Conspiracy - although evidence is hard to gather in criminal conspiracy cases since most of the agreements must be inferred from what little evidence actually exists, trial judges often have more sympathy for the prosecutors as a result.

An agreement between two or more persons to engage jointly in an unlawful or criminal act, or an act that is innocent in itself but becomes unlawful when done by the combination of actors. For example, one who conspires with another to commit burglary and in fact commits the burglary can be charged with both conspiracy to commit burglary and burglary.

~~Overact~~ - An overt act can be any step that indicates that the execution of the conspiracy has begun. This can be an innocuous act and need not be illegal unto itself. For example, if two persons agree to rob a bank, then purchase a ski mask, the act of buying the mask may constitute the overt act required to charge the two with conspiracy.

The overt act must follow the agreement and must be executed with an intent to carry out the purpose of the conspiracy. For example, if one of the potential bank robbers buys a ski mask after the agreement is made, the purchase may not constitute the overt act if the ski mask will not be worn to carry out the robbery.

An overt act need not be committed by each & every conspirator; an overt act by one conspirator solidifies the offense for all co-conspirators. Thus, a

- ~~conspiracy to defraud~~
 - ~~conspiracy to corrupt~~
 - ~~agreement to engage in an unlawful act with intent to carry out the act.~~
- conspiracy to defraud, from MORRIS vs. STRANGE people, agency. statutory conspiracy. thefreedictionary.com/conspiracy.

A conspiracy is an agreement between two or more persons to commit a crime at some time in the future. Criminal law in some countries or for some conspiracies may require that at least one overt act must also have been undertaken in furtherance of that agreement, to constitute an offense. There is no limit on the number participating in the conspiracy and, in most countries, no requirement that any steps have been taken to put the plan into effect.

For the purposes of concurrence, theactus reus is a continuing one and parties may join the plot later and incur joint liability and conspiracy can be charged where the co-conspirators have been acquitted or cannot be traced. Finally, repentance by one or more parties does not affect liability but may reduce their sentence. - wikipedia.com 12 Dec 12

- Common law, the crime of conspiracy was capable of infinite growth, able to accommodate any new situation & to criminalize it if the level of threat to society was sufficiently great. The courts were therefore acting in the role of positive movement, and role model to society. How does that sound? So this gives people the right to plot bc it's positive AND E help people so till me for it.

What Elements are needed to prove Criminal Conspiracy
The two key elements in proving a conspiracy are 2N agreement and 2N act in furtherance of the conspiracy by one of the actors.
Motive "Life has been controlled by 24th what the dog saw"

- A key element in prosecuting a defendant for conspiracy is proving the agreement. The agreement that forms the basis for conspiracy need not be written, oral, or even explicit but is often inferred from the facts of the specific case. If the parties meet and reach an understanding to work for a common purpose, there is an agreement.

- Most criminal conspiracy statutes also require that at least one of the parties has committed an overt act in furtherance of the conspiracy.

Religion - bc of religious beliefs.

Retaliation - include hiring, firing, pay, job assignments, promotions, layoff, training, fringe benefits, and any other term or condition of employment. All of the laws we enforce make it illegal to fire, demote, harass, or otherwise "retaliate" against people bc they filed a charge of discrimination, complained to their covered entity abt discrimination on the job, or because they participated in a discrimination proceeding such as an investigation or lawsuit.

Sex

Sexual Harassment - unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical harassment of a sexual nature.

4 MAJOR CHARACTERISTICS OF CJ SYSTEM

discretion - officials freedom to act according to his or her own judgement.

Hearsay evidence is not admissible except as provided by statute or court rules. When witnesses offer evidence that they don't have direct knowledge of (and which is based on what others have said to them) this evidence is called hearsay. Hearsay is generally not permissible bc it tends to be unreliable.

Right to Evidence Disclosure. (Discovery)

Procedures for obtaining evidence

Once the defendant is charged with a crime, the court sets the time for when a request for discovery can be made. The defendant can then make a formal request, called a motion, for information. The government must then disclose the information requested by the defendant.

The gov't has a continuing duty to disclose evidence after a request for disclosure has been made. It must promptly disclose additional evidence whenever it discovers it, even during trial.

- helps defendant make informed decisions and minimizes surprise at trial.
- oral + written statements made by the defendant to police officers
- tape-recorded statements of the defendant
- testimony by the defendant at a grand jury.
- defendant's criminal record
- books, papers, documents and photographs
- Information from a physical or mental examination
- Information from a scientific test or experiment
- Names + qualifications of experts and a summary of their testimony.

Gov't entitled to disclosure (violated)

* gov't may only request disclosure if the defendant has first requested disclosure from the gov't.

* Discovery misconduct

The defendant is guaranteed the right to fair trial. gov't must follow the DW and respect the rights of the defendant. If it fails to do so, it commits misconduct.

* Court may prevent the party from using the undisclosed evidence

• Court may GRANT more time to the other party to review the newly disclosed evidence & prepare for trial.

• Court may order the party to disclose the information at a specific time, place and manner

How can I make sure that the gov't is disclosing all the evidence it finds in my favor?

Must the gov't disclose the reports of any experiments it took for the case? What if the reports contained information on the gov't theories of the case?

Religious - military professionals must remember that religious choice is a matter of individual conscience. Professionals - and especially commanders - must not take it upon themselves to change or coercively influence the religious views of subordinates.

With that said we would be interdependent parts - I need you to go to court w/ me and win, and you need me, this case is a highly visible case, a celebrated case, this would be an ome to your career. You would get rich, we would get international and national notariety, and you will get more clientele which equals more money for you.

Openness

Professionals of integrity encourage a free flow of information within the organization.

They seek feedback from all directions to ensure they are fulfilling key responsibilities, and they are never afraid to allow anyone at any time to examine how they do business.

Self-respect

To have integrity is also to respect oneself as a professional and a human being. A person of integrity does not behave in ways that would bring discredit upon himself/herself or the organization to which he/she belongs.

Humility - A person of integrity grasps and is sobered by the awesome task of defending the Constitution of the United States of America.

Discipline AND Self-control

Professionals cannot indulge themselves in self-pity, discouragement, anger, frustration or defeatism.

They have a fundamental moral obligation to the persons they lead to strike a tone of confidence and forward-looking optimism.

Anger - Military professionals especially commanders are expected to refrain from displays of anger that would bring discredit upon themselves and/or the Air Force.

AIR FORCE.COM my values.

"We do the impossible."

First core value: Integrity first

Second core value: Service before self

Third core value: Excellence in all we do.

Inspires us to do our very best at all times.

Courage: A person of integrity possesses moral courage and does what is right even if the personal cost is high.

Honesty: Honesty is the hallmark of the military professional because in the military, our word must be our bond. We don't pencil-whip training reports, we don't cover up tech data violations, we don't falsify documents and we don't write misleading operational readiness messages. The bottom line is: We don't lie, and we can't justify any deviation.

Responsibility: No person of integrity is irresponsible; a person of true integrity acknowledges his/her duties and acts accordingly.

Accountability: No person of integrity tries to shift the blame to others or take credit for the work of others. "The buck stops here" says it best.

Justice: A person of integrity practices justice. Those who do similar things must get similar rewards or similar punishments.

the accusation, to be confronted with the witnesses against him, to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.
